Online Auction Bidding Tips

Login/ New Bidder- Click login/ New Bidder link at the top right of the auction page. Fill out the information to create a User name which can be used for all current and upcoming auctions.

Register to Bid- After Creating a user name, Click the register to bid. In order to register to bid a current credit card will have to be on file. The card will not be charged for registration, the only time the card will be charged if auction items aren't picked up by the pickup deadline.

Placing bids- When placing bids be careful to put the decimal point on of Flooring bids. The site will accept all bids up to $4500. All Bid over $4500 will be listed as pending and will have to be accepted/ declined or edited by an administrator. The site will automatically bid on your behalf. For example if the current bid on and item is $10 and you set your max to $20 the software will automatically bid in scheduled increments until you're the high bidder or the max bid is reached.

Auction Closing- 1 hour prior to the schedule Close of the auction there will be a link posted between the auction Header and the first lot. This link will take you to a live page with any lot scheduled to close all on one page with live refresh. When the auction is closing the first lot is scheduled to close at the advertised closing time, Followed by the remaining lots spaced 15 seconds apart. Similar items will be linked, most of the time by category (example Tile, Kitchen, Laminate). Soft Close feature will extend all linked lots even if no bid is placed on that lot. All auction lots have a soft close feature which will extend the auction time by 3 minute if a bid is placed on an item within 3 minutes of the auctions lot scheduled closing.

After the auction- After all the auction lots have closed an unpaid emailed invoice will be emailed to your email address on file. This invoice will have the default 13% buyer's premium. If you're paying cash or check the 3% Discount in the buyer's premium will be applied when payment is received. All payments will be processed when the auction items are picked up. Any item not picked up by the last scheduled pick up day the credit card on file will be charged the 13% buyer's Premium or $25 whichever is greater

Auction Pick up- When Picking auction items up remember to bring enough help to load. Surplus liquidators Staff will assist gathering won lots and bringing them to the pick-up bays. Surplus liquidator's staff cannot be solely responsible for loading your vehicle. We can supply cardboard for packing material. Please bring, sting, tie downs, ratchet straps, blankets, shrink wrap as these items are not supplied. Surplus Liquidators Staff is not responsible for property damage occurring while loading.
